MR. CRANKSNIFF AND THE FAIR MOTORISTS.

By Helena Smith Dayton.
Pictures by Angie Breakpear.
"I refuse to be rescued by anyone but the Googan girls," whimpered Mrs. Puffington from the middle of Frog Pond, where she had gracefully glided in her brand new electric phaeton. "But oh dear, oh dear! What'll I do till they get here?"

The sole witness of Mrs. Puffington's plight stood on the bank and eyed her with mingled disgust and amusement. She was a girl of 14 and lived in the only house in the vicinity of Frog Pond and was at that moment the only member at home. Mrs. Puffington's fate rested in her hands.

"I don't know any Googans 'round here," she called across the divide. "But I can call up some men at the nearest house on the telephone and they'll come pull you out!"

"That's just it—they'd pull me out and I'd be worse off than I am now, and the laughing stock of the town."

The Googan Girls Washed and Ironed Mrs. Puffington.

No alarm—when the Googans rescue you—they do it right. Call 'em up at their studio or I'll die in a watery grave!" And then came another downpour of Mrs. Puffington's grief. She stamped her foot at the girl in explaining how to reach the Googans—and she was well splashed for her impatience.

While she was sinking deeper into the pond, Mrs. Keeney, her bitter rival in motorcraft was getting deeper in the affections of Mr. Ezra Cranksniff.

When, in an incredibly short time, the Googan girls dashed up to the relief of Mrs. Puffington, they found her reduced to a weeping Niobe.

"She's a pretty big limousine body to haul out of the puddle," said Lilly.

The Googans Receive a Message From Across the Pond to Drop Everything and Come.

"Who is going to row out and attach the towing rope?"

"You'd make a regular pond Lilly suggested Tilly. 'I'll start up our car when it's time for the tug of war.'"

The Googan girls were clever at getting people out of predicaments of this sort, so in short order Mrs. Puffington was dividing her thanks between Heaven and the Googans for restoring her to dry land. But it was not done without a few April showers, for Mrs. Puffington's other troubles increased as her danger lessened.

"Look at me!" she sobbed. "And it took me all the morning to get fixed up swell!"

"We brought our repair kit," whispered Tilly. "and we'll have you lovely in ten minutes. That's part of the Googan system—to cover up all trace of mishaps."

"Well, that's a blessing," sighed Mrs. Puffington with relief. "I wouldn't have Henrietta Keeney see me like this—and know the truth—for all the world. And as for Ezra Cranksniff—"she broke into a dismal howl.

"Do tell us about it," urged Tilly, lighting the little burner to heat the curling tongs.

"Well—I don't know but I just as soon tell you as not—you are such nice sympathetic girls. You see, there's a gentleman of my acquaintance who has paid me quite a lot of attention—and I will say for him, I haven't seen such a likely man since John Puffington died, though I always did say I wouldn't marry the best man living. Now this Mr. Cranksniff is all wrapped up in automobiles of all kinds. There's a very designing person—a sort of friend of mine that was—by the name of Henrietta Keeney—and what did she do? She bought an electric machine and asked Mr. Cranksniff to teach her to run it! I bought a car about the same time—but not to catch any man, I want you to understand that. I bought my car to please myself—not Mr. Cranksniff, though it was awfully sweet of him to offer to teach me. So after all Henrietta Keeney didn't have anything on me! She is—"

"You are making Mrs. Puffington blush more on the right side than on the left," interrupted Lilly critically.

"Well—I'm not a landscape gardener by profession," retorted Tilly, making another dab at Mrs. Puffington's expansive face.

"If I do say it," resumed Mrs. Puffington, "I got on much better than Henrietta and Mr. Cranksniff was ever complimentary. He said if he ever loved a woman it would be one who could handle a car well. Dear me, how times have changed! Why when John Puffington was calling on me it was considered enough if a girl was ladylike and a good housekeeper. Nowadays, if you want to attract a man you've got to be able to run a locomotive if the gentleman happens to have a fancy for railroading."

"Well, Henrietta saw the hit I was making with Ezra—Mr. Cranksniff, and she goes off on the quiet and takes lessons of an expert—maybe it was you girls? Well, anyway, of someone. Ever since it's been Mrs. Keeney this and Mrs. Keeney that with Ezra."

"There is a sort of crisis in the air to-day. I heard he was going to be at

HOME-MADE REMEDY

INEXPENSIVE AND EASILY PREPARED BY ANYONE.

Is Said to Promptly Relieve Backache and Overcome Kidney Trouble and Bladder Weakness Though Harmless and Pleasant to Take.

What will appear very interesting to many people here is the article taken from a New York daily paper, giving a simple prescription, as formulated by a noted authority, who claims that he has found a positive remedy to cure almost any case of backache or kidney or bladder derangement, in the following simple prescription, if taken before the stage of Bright's disease:

Fluid Extract Dandelion, one-half ounce; Compound Kargon, one ounce; Compound Syrup Sarsaparilla, three ounces. Shake well in a bottle and take in teaspoonful doses after each meal and again at bedtime.

A well-known authority, when asked regarding this prescription, stated that the ingredients are all harmless, and can be obtained at a small cost from any good prescription pharmacy, or the mixture would be put up if asked to do so. He further stated that while this prescription is often prescribed in rheumatic afflictions with splendid results, he could see no reason why it would not be a splendid remedy for kidney and urinary troubles and backache, as it has a peculiar action upon the kidney structure, cleansing these most important organs and helping them to sift and filter from the blood the foul acids and waste matter which cause sickness and suffering. Those who suffer can make no mistake in giving it a trial.

PROVIDENCE WAS IN IT.

Fortunate Meeting Surely Brought About by Hand of Fate.

A farmerish-looking man shared my seat on the train and I was traveling through Indiana, and after we had been talking for a couple of hours a very common-looking woman got on at a station. I saw the man look very hard at her, and directly after she had taken a seat he rose up and said:

"Excuse me, stranger, but I think I used to know that woman, and I'll go over and see her."

He was gone about an hour, and I had forgotten all about him when he returned to say:

"Yes, I knew her. Durn my cats if it didn't turn out to be my first wife!"

"It did?"

"Sure you live. We was divorced 'seven years ago, and since then I've been married twice and lost both women by death. I surely believe the hand of Providence is in it."

"For just what reason?"

"Why, I've got nine children that need a mother, and Hanner is willing to try it again and see if we can't get along better!"—Exchange.

FURIOUS HUMOR ON CHILD.

Itching, Bleeding Sores Covered Body—Nothing Helped Her—Cuticura, Cures Her in Five Days.

"After my granddaughter of about seven years has been cured of the measles, she was attacked about a fortnight later by a furious itching and painful eruption all over her body, especially the upper part of it, forming watery and bleeding sores, especially under the arms, of considerable size. She suffered a great deal and for three weeks we pursued her every night, using all the remedies we could think of. Nothing would help. We tried the Cuticura Remedies and after twenty-four hours we noted considerable improvement, and after using only one complete set of the Cuticura Remedies, in five consecutive days the little one, much to our joy, had been entirely cured, and has been well for a long time. Mrs. F. Ruefenacht, R. F. D. No. 2, Bakersfield, Cal., June 25 and July 20, 1906."

First Aid.

A Washington doctor was recently called by his telephone by a colored woman formerly in the service of his wife. In great agitation the darky advised the physician that her youngest child was in a bad way.

"What seems to be the trouble?" asked the doctor.

"Doc, she done swallered a whole bottle of ink!"

"I'll be there in a short while to see her," said the doctor. "In the mean time have you done anything for her?"

"I done give her three pieces o' blottin' paper, Doc," said the negress, doubtfully.—Harper's Weekly.

Full of Knots.

The lanky tramp removed his tattered hat and displayed his intellectual brow.

"Ah, lady," he confided. "I have brains to burn. There is nothing I like better than to tackle knotty problems."

The busy housewife reached for the ax.

"Indeed!" she said. "Well, go down to the woodpile. You will find that last load the most knotty problem you ever tackled during your career."

Where He Had Beat of It.

John and Willie are twins. Their best friend and playfellow is Archie, who is gifted with red hair and a hot temper. One day they quarreled and Archie started home in a huff. The unsympathetic twins called after him "red head, red head." Archie seemed not to hear until the insult was repeated, then he turned and called back, "Don't care if I am red headed, I ain't twins and folks can tell me apart."—Grand Forks Press.

Tripped.

Gunner—So you think the DeBlowers are faking about their extended European tour?

Guyver—I should say so. They said there were so many Americans in Venice that many had to walk in the middle of the street.

Gunner—Why?

Guyver—Well the streets of Venice are canals.—Chicago Daily News.

PROLIFIC GARDEN

ENGLISHMAN'S FIRST AND SUCCESSFUL ATTEMPTS IN MANITOBA—SOIL PRODUCES STRIKING RESULTS.

The Winnipeg (Canada) Free Press of a few days since contains account of the success that followed the efforts of William Knowles, an Englishman who located near Winnipeg, Manitoba. This is but one of many letters giving experiences of settlers, and should be encouraging to those who are looking about for a new home in which they may better their conditions. The following is a copy of the article referred to:

William Knowles, who cultivates some twelve acres of land just below Middlechurch ferry on east side of the Red River has probably as fine a display of horticultural products as any in Manitoba. The whole of his holding is in a high state of cultivation and literally crowded with splendid vegetable specimens, which have fortunately escaped damage by hail, although heavy storms have more than once occurred within a few miles. The potatoes are a wonderful crop, and he expects to raise 1,500 bushels from his patch of 4½ acres. A half dozen of tubers selected yesterday averaged more than a pound each. Adjoining the potatoes may be seen a marvelous collection of tomatoes. There are 600 plants, all growing under an enormous weight of fruit. One single stock picked yesterday contained eighteen tomatoes and weighed four pounds. This extraordinary example of marvelous growth, together with some of the potatoes were sent to the Free Press office.

The proprietor was the first in town with several specimens, including green corn. The season has been favorable for onions, and one square patch of nearly an acre is looking remarkably healthy. In addition there are good crops of cabbages, cauliflower, turnips, parsnips, carrots, pumpkins, marrow, cucumbers, celery, peas, lettuce, rhubarb, etc. The floral department has not been neglected and a charming display of all the well known blooms were shown, including a specially choice lot of asters.

Mr. Knowles, who gained most of his gardening experience in England, is loud in his praise of Manitoba soil for vegetable raising, and is gratified with the result of his first attempt at extensive horticulture.

On Wit and Humor.

Man is the only animal that laughs and weeps; for he is the only animal that is struck with the difference between what things are and what they ought to be. We weep at what thwarts or exceeds our desires in serious matters; we laugh at what only disappoints our expectations in trifles. We shed tears from sympathy with real and necessary distress; as we burst into laughter from want of sympathy with that which is unreasonable and unnecessary, the absurdity of which provokes our spleen or mirth, rather than serious reflections on it.—William Hazlitt.

56,560 Acres U. S. Homestead farming and grazing land will be thrown open on the Lower Brule Reservation a few miles from Pierre, S. D., the state capital, October 7th to 12th. ## Women Avoid Operations

When a woman suffering from female trouble is told that an operation is necessary, it, of course, frightens her.

The very thought of the hospital, the operating table and the knife strikes terror to her heart.

It is quite true that these troubles may reach a stage where an operation is the only resource, but great many women have been cured by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound after an operation has been decided upon as the only cure.

The strongest and most grateful statements possible to make come from women who by taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound made from native roots and herbs, have escaped serious operations, as evidenced by Miss Rose Moore's case, of 307 W. 26th St., N. Y. She writes:

"Dear Mrs. Pinkham:—Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has cured me of the very worst form of female trouble and I wish to express to you my deepest gratitude. I suffered intensely for two years so that I was unable to attend to my duties and was a burden to my family. I doctored and doctored with only temporary relief and constantly objecting to an operation which I was advised to undergo. I decided to try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound; it cured me of the terrible trouble and I am now in better health than I have been for many years."

This and other such cases should encourage every woman to try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound before she submits to an operation.

Mrs. Pinkham's Standing Invitation to Women

Women suffering from any form of female weakness are invited to promptly communicate with Mrs. Pinkham, at Lynn, Mass. From the symptoms given, the trouble may be located and the quickest and surest way of recovery advised.

NOTHING HID FROM KAISER.

How German Emperor Keeps in Touch with World's Affairs.

The German emperor's interest in everything that goes on in the world is well known, but few are aware of the trouble he takes to keep in touch with current affairs. According to a Munich newspaper, the Kaiser reads at least three papers every day, changing the list several times a week in order to become fully acquainted with the ideas of all political parties in the state. But this by no means exhausts his appetite for information. Every day the ministry of foreign affairs, as well as that of the interior, has to provide newspaper cuttings, properly named and dated, and pasted on slips ready for the emperor's perusal. These he carefully reads, making marginal notes as he goes along, and they are then scrupulously classified and put aside ready for immediate reference. Often, too, the emperor asks for cuttings relating to the particular technical subjects in which for the time he is specially interested.

A Point of View.

The new steamer City of _____ was laid up for repairs and one of the rickety old-timers of the line was sailing in her place. A passenger who was somewhat irritated by the fact remarked to another, an Irishman, by the way: "The City of _____ always gets in at two in the morning and this old tub never gets in before six."

The Irishman thought for a moment and replied: "It's all right. The distance is just the same and we get a longer sail for the money."

End's Prayer.

The other night little End, tired out by a day's romping, was about to retire for the night when her mother told her to say her prayers, which she evidently was about to forget. This is what she said: "Oh, Lord, if you know everything, you know I am very sleepy, so dood-by till to-morrow night!"

The Perfect Lady—It was perfectly horrid, that's just what it was! Why, Shakespeare's tomb was guarded so meanly that I didn't get an opportunity to chip off a single souvenir, or even to write my name on it.—Puck.
